Pop Project visit J and I

On Tuesday "The Pop Project" made a return visit to school after their very successful performance at Christmas. This time the children were treated to a musical journey through "Great British Literature". As well as having great fun singing and dancing, the children learnt lots about some of the classic books written by great British authors such as Shakespeare, Tolkien, Lewis Carroll and Beatrix Potter.

At Lowton J & I we aim for all children to have 96% attendance or over.

The school's overall attendances for each year group are:

Year Group	Last Week	Yearly Attendance to Date
